ABOUT US

KROZONE ENGINEERING Private Limited: Where Expertise Meets Innovation in Engineering. Founded by seasoned Experts with a collective experience and exposure spanning over 15 decades, we embark on a journey to redefine excellence in the field of Engineering. Committed to pioneering solutions and driving the future of steam technology, we bring a wealth of knowledge and a passion for innovation to every project we undertake. Welcome to a new era in engineering with KROZONE ENGINEERING."

While there have been many manufacturers of products in India, however we have observed that most of the products being used in the Indian market have been designed by the European manufacturer which has created a definite gap between the market expectations and what is required by the customer as Indian conditions were never studied and kept in mind while designing these products due to which we see a big down time for steam products in the industry and generally the people or the weather and machines are blamed for these downtime as nobody actually questions the real problems.

At Incosteam International we have designed and manufactured products that are in line with Indian conditions ie skill set of people, overall equipment's infrastructure, automation level presently available, weather conditions and finally the economics of Manpower and Fuel.
